Food

I would recommend Barbeque Nation for its style of preparing grilled dishes in front of you, hot and delicious. I like the non-vegetarian fare here, and it's always exciting to see them being prepared on your table. Another place that is also good is the Caesar's restaurant on M G Road for its ambience and good service. It's not just about dumping the food you order here but more about knowing your customers so much so that they actually remember the dish you had ordered last time.
